Fraud, Waste & Abuse

Examples of beneficiary fraud, waste, or abuse:

- Misrepresentation of status: A Medicare beneficiary misrepresents identity, eligibility, or medical condition to illegally receive the drug benefit.
- Identity theft: Perpetrator uses another person's Medicare card to obtain prescriptions.
- Doctor shopping: Consulting a number of doctors to obtain multiple prescriptions for narcotic painkillers or other drugs.
- Improper Coordination of Benefits: Beneficiary fails to disclose multiple coverage policies or leverages various coverage police to "game" the system.
- Prescription forging, altering or diversion: Where prescriptions are altered, by someone other than the prescriber or pharmacist with prescriber approval, to increase quantity or number of refills, especially narcotics.
- Resale of drugs on black market: Beneficiary falsely reports loss or theft of drugs or feigns illness to obtain drugs for resale on the black market.
